

Skunk Patrol Skit

Note: "Announcer" is the main speaking part, other speaking parts to be assigned among campers (add or reduce parts as needed). If you have strong speakers, you can edit the skit so that each Scout gives their "report" instead of just listening to what the "Announcer" wants them to do. Bring scripts for practice and sir stinky skunk prop. Black Tshirts or skunk tails would be good for future.

Start: Announcer walks up by himself holding Sir Stinky over his head (or on the Pack 77 pole).

Announcer: Skunk Patrol, fall in !!!

All the other campers run in and line up facing crowd. Maybe make hand movements or hold hands up to look like skunks. Everyone remains in line until the end of the skit.

Other campers: Sir yes sir !!

Announcer: OK Skunk Patrol this is the moment we have all been waiting for. All the humans are down at the campfire so the rest of the camp is ours! Is everyone ready for their missions?

Other campers: Sir yes sir !!

Announcer: Stinkface, here's your mission. The Ant patrol reports that the human Patch left two slices of pizza down at Waterfront – go get them.

Stinkface: Sir yes sir !!

Announcer: Stripes - the Bee patrol says that smelly Scout in Barnett left three slushies under his cot – go get them before the Bee patrol eats them all.

Stripes: Sir yes sir !!

Announcer: Stinks-A-Lot -the Snake patrol says that messy Scout in Eaton has candy bars in his footlocker – go get them and remember, be careful – everybody in Eaton smells just like us.

Stinks-A-Lot: Sir yes sir !!

Announcer: Sir Stinky, you have the most important mission. Did you eat all those beans from the dining hall today?

Sir Stinky: Sir yes sir !!

Announcer: Great, I want you to go the Ranger's house and leave him a stinky present on his front porch – and remember, his dog is on our team !

Sir Stinky: Sir yes sir !!

Announcer: OK, that's it. Does everybody remember the Skunk Law?

Other campers YELL: Stay away from the Ranger !!

Announcer: Great, how about the Skunk Motto?

Other campers YELL: When in doubt, spray it out !!

Announcer: Great, how about the Skunk Salute?

Other campers turn around and wiggle their butts at the crowd.

Announcer: Awesome, I think we're ready. Skunk Patrol, fall out !!!

(Everybody runs off to side and then return quietly to seats)
